PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the printing trade in the United States has contributed much to improve the American way of life through the use of the printed word; and

WHEREAS, commemoration should be made on the 262nd anniversary of the birth of Benjamin Franklin, January 17, 1706, in Boston; and

WHERAS, Franklin was a printer in his early life, and on his retirement from the printing business, he devoted the remainder of his life to serving his country as a diplomat, inventor, scientist, and primarily, a patriot; and

WHEREAS, January 14-20, 1968, has been designated as the 39th annual-- throughout the United States, and it will be observed by the printing plants in South Dakota;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, NILS A. BOE, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby call upon the citizens of the state to appropriately pay tribute to the memory of Benjamin Franklin, one of America's foremost printers and statesmen, and to join together in observance from January 14-20, 1968, as National Printing Week.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 8th day of January, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Sixty-eight.
